Greetings From Burkina Faso

A Note From Our Founder

Our newsletters are intended to update our donors and volunteers of the long lasting difference we are making together. Stories like Lizeta's below speak louder than I do when it comes to FNTE lasting difference.

First, she and I would like to bestow our hearts of sincere gratitude to all our donors who contribute in providing hope where it often never existed. Secondly, FNTE is now official in Burkina Faso as a non-profit organization as it is here in the U.S.A. Beyond successful official paperwork, my August service trip was also an opportunity to build a strong foundation and train my local team. Although a short trip, its impact according to our local representative Mr. Tonde is timeless. Talking of time, I felt strongly that it's time to extend our program to women as we do with our care packages. More details on this new project will be on our future newsletters. Thank you for your partnership with us.

Mobility at Last

"My name is Lizeta Nikiema... I didn't have legs but you gave me legs... I am speechless... thank you Alfred and thanks a lot to your friends for caring". Lizeta has been severely paralyzed by polio since age 14. Unlike other girls of her age, Lizeta felt she lost everything including all the good things that come with being a girl. Our founder had a different vision for her: not to let polio stop Lizeta from reaching her God given potential. Now, Lizeta will be able to go to places she's never been and do things she could never do. In fact, she plans on biking to the farm to grow her own peanuts from which she hopes to generate an income. Thanks to FNTE donors!

It Goes Beyond a Care Package

"I am Pastor Zongo and I pastor in the village Selou. My wife and I have 4 kids and we also have 3 girls we care for that have been rejected by their families because of their faith. We also have 3 other young men and my younger brother living with us. We sent our first child to school 4 years ago but last year we could not afford it. So he had to stay home and I was pretty sad. My congregation is growing and food has always been an issue with my members... When I heard

Pastor Zongo (family of 13) sharing about FNTE lasting difference for his family and church members.

Alfred is coming, I was very happy to meet him and thank him for what his friends have done for us. The closest real love I have ever seen beside Jesus, is what Alfred and his American friends are doing. I shook his hand and told him thank you for redefining love for us... As one of the 2015 beneficiaries, I expanded my farm and look forward to sending my son back to school next year and providing food to folks in need..."
